

POL KHOLI

The Old City Café

'Pol' means a housing cluster connected through narrow streets - the old city center of Ahmedabad is made up of 'pols'.

It also means 'an unknown secret'.

'Kholi' means 'revealed' or 'opened'.

'Pol Kholi' attempts to open the secret of the old city streets to the visitors of this UNESCO World Heritage City.

The café serves traditional snacks along with fresh juices and ice-creams.

Mangaldas ni Haveli II is a modern hotel in a refurbished 150 year old residential home located in the very heart of the Historic Walled city. It is just a ten minute ride from The House of MG and within walking distance of the Jami Masjid, a plethora of ancient temples and monuments, bustling bazaars and artisan workshops. At night, the neighboring Manekchawk transforms into a pulsating outdoor food court.
