

THE HOUSE OF MG - BUNGALOW

THE HOUSE OF MG BUNGALOW It is a premier boutique heritage hotel in Ahmedabad, a UNESCO World Heritage City of India. It was built by one of the City Fathers, Mangaldas Girdhardas. It represents the colonial heritage architecture of the early 20th century, replete with courtyards and verandahs. Centrally located, minutes from the heritage landmarks and the famous riverfront, this beautifully restored property has thirty-seven rooms and two popular restaurants. Consistently voted as the preferred hotel by travellers since 2007, it prides itself as a single women, family & senior citizen friendly destination.

MANGALDAS NI HAVELI I is located in the heart of the historic walled city of Ahmedabad. This beautiful 250 years old carved wooden villa, built in traditional style with a central courtyard, has been painstakingly

AGASHIYE - THE TERRACE RESTAURANT

AGASHIYE is the most iconic restaurant in the city that has been delighting guests since 1999. Recognised for serving the best Gujarati thali in India, this restaurant is spread over the entire terrace of the colonial style mansion. Guests can enjoy a sit down dinner, similar to how a Gujarati family eats at home. The food is prepared from seasonal menu and served in a Silver or Kansa plate (brass alloy) by an attentive and enthusiastic staff.

THE GREEN HOUSE is a relaxing café set amidst lush greenery on the ground floor courtyard of the mansion, overlooking the famous Sidi Saiyed Mosque. It is the perfect meeting place for comfort food, snacks, cold pressed fresh juices and homemade ice-creams.

Two generations of guests have grown up visiting this café since 1999.
