

MOSQUE & TOMB TOURS

RANI SIPRI MOSQUE

Rani Sipri Mosque built in 1514 by Sultan Mahmud Begada's Hindu queen Sipri, is a memorial mosque blending Indo-Islamic stone carving, prayer space, and royal devotion in delicate lattice and domes.

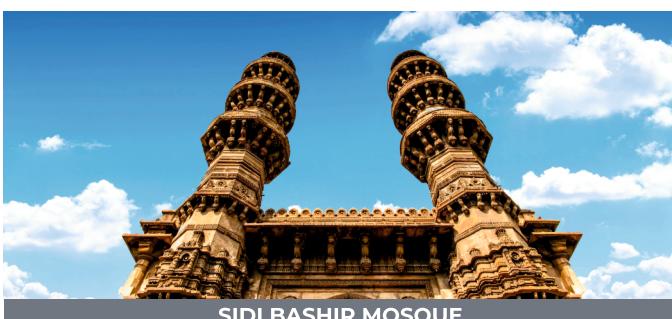

SHAHI PATHHARVALI MOSQUE

MUHAFIZ KHAN'S MOSQUE

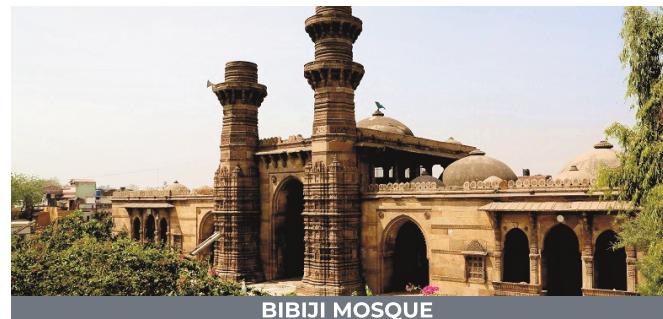

Shahi Pathharvali Mosque built 1693 by Shaikh Haji Mohammad Chishti; carved stone mosque once with madrasa, continuing as worship, learning, and community space.

Muahafiz Khan's Mosque completed 1465; elegant minarets and carved arches showcase Sultanate architecture, serving as Friday Mosque anchoring community identity and devotion.

SIDI BASHIR MOSQUE

Sidi Bashir Mosque built in the 16th century, is famous for its "Shaking Minarets," built as a congregational mosque and engineering marvel demonstrating vibration-responsive stone construction.

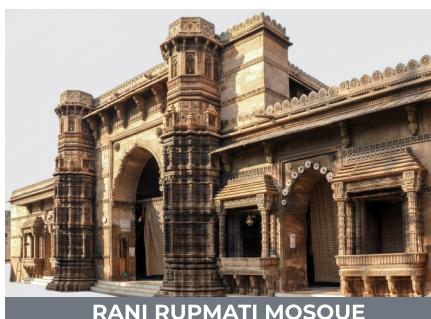

BIBIJI MOSQUE

Bibiji Mosque 16th-century neighborhood mosque in Gomtipur, commissioned by local patrons; its jhulta minarets showcase earthquake-resistant engineering and support daily congregational community prayers.

DARIYA KHAN TOMB

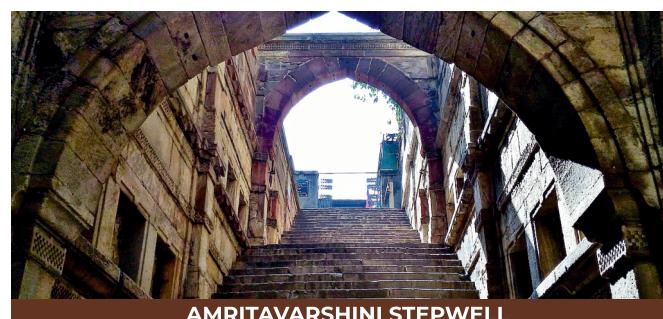

RANI RUPMATI MOSQUE

Dariya Khan Tomb raised in the 15th century for a noble and minister of Sultan Mahmud Begada, honors his memory. it is one of the largest unsupported dome structures in India.

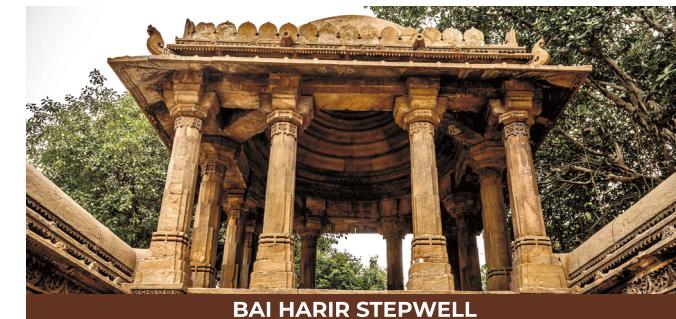

Rani Rupmati Mosque mid-15th-century royal mosque with elegant domes, jali screens, balconies, and Sultanate-era refinement.

STEPWELL TOURS

AMRITAVARSHINI STEPWELL

Amritavarshini Stepwell built in 1723 by diwan Raghunath Das, stored sweet water for travelers and residents, its triple-storeyed arcades and shrines offering both practical relief from heat and a setting for worship.

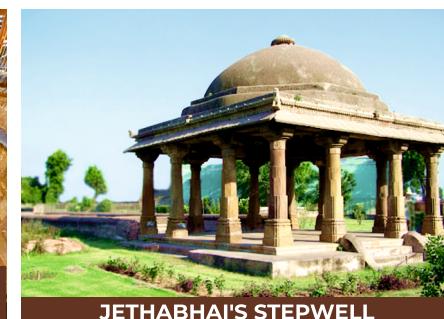

BAI HARIR STEPWELL

Bai Harir Stepwell built in 1499 by Bai Harir, a royal housekeeper under Mahmud Begada, conserved water and offered travelers a cool, devotional retreat through carved pillars, platforms, and chambers.

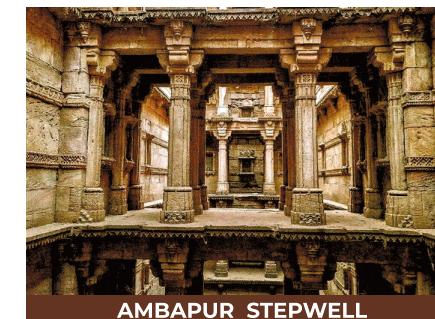

MATA BHAVANI STEPWELL

JETHABHAI'S STEPWELL

Mata Bhavani Stepwell a medieval shrine-stepwell dedicated to Goddess Bhavani, was sponsored by local Hindu patrons to combine sacred worship with reliable water storage.

Jethabhai's Stepwell a 19th-century philanthropic project by merchant Jethabhai, collected groundwater for surrounding neighborhoods.

AMBAPUR STEPWELL

ASHAPURA MATA STEPWELL

Ambapur Stepwell 15th-century stepwell linked to Queen Rudabai; descending sculpted levels cool air and guide villagers to water, shrines, and communal space.

Ashapura Mata Stepwell beautifully carved stepwell dedicated to Goddess Ashapura, reflecting Gujarati craftsmanship while serving as sacred water source and community gathering place.

JAIN TEMPLE TOURS

HUTHEESING JAIN TEMPLE

Hutheesing Jain Temple built in 1848 by Shethani Harkunvar in memory of Sheth Hutheesing, this marble Jain temple honors Lord Dharmanath's devotion and artistry.

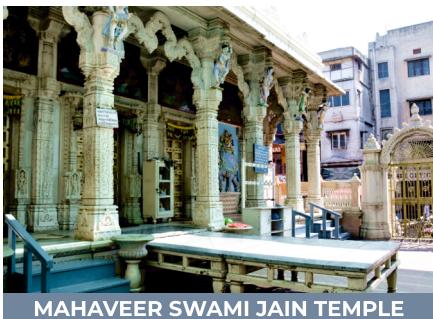

CHINTAMANI
PARSHWANATH

SAMBHAVNATH NI KHADKI

Chintamani Parshwanath built 1621-1625 by Shantidas and Vardhman, symbolizing Jain devotion and Mughal-era religious continuity.

Sambhavnath ni Khadki founded 1662 and rebuilt in marble in 1904, this compact partly underground Jain sanctuary supports meditation, worship, and community ceremonies.

MAHAVEER SWAMI JAIN TEMPLE

SHWETAMBAR
JAIN TEMPLE

Mahaveer Swami Jain Temple 19th-century Jain shrine with carved domes, murals, daily puja, festivals, and serene reflection.

Shwetambar Jain Temple 19th-century Shwetambar Jain temple with carved halls, sacred images, worship, and community life.

ASHTAPAD JAIN DERASAR

JAGVALLABH
PARSHWANATH
DERASAR

Ashtapad Jain Derasar 19th-century marble temple by the Sarabhai family, inspired by Mount Ashtapad, enabling symbolic pilgrimage, meditation, and sacred local Jain worship.

Jagvallabh Parshwanath Derasar historic Jain temple venerating Parshwanath; carved domes and pillars support rituals, recitation, gatherings, and daily spiritual life shaped by merchant patronage.

MOSQUE & TOMB TOUR

Half-day tour

Morning: 9:00 am to 1:00 pm

STEPWELL TOUR

Half-day tour

Morning: 10:00 am to 1:00 pm

JAIN TEMPLE TOUR

Half-day tour

Morning: 7:00 am to 11:30 am

All tours are customizable.

All packages are half-day tours.

The House of MG
EXPLORE

Curated local experiences

Scan for weblink

www.houseofmg.com

@ @thehouseofmg

f The House of MG

For bookings
Call: +91-79-2550 6946

The House of MG

It feels like coming home

